“ would urge that [at the Jamboree] we do not let our boys be content with the mere fact of being in camp with those of other nations, but that we should encourage them to utilise every minute of the short time they are there to make acquaintance, and from acquaintance friendship, with their brother Scouts, their future fellowmen in the world. Each boy could then go forth from the Jamboree with a new responsibility upon him, namely, that of an apostle, to his particular district, of peace and goodwill.”
(Baden - Powell, Jamboree, July 1929.)

“Since wars begin in the minds of men, it is in the minds of men that the defences of peace must be constructed.”
(UNESCO Constitution, 1945, first paragraph.)
